

Character Area 18 South of Murray Park

At the end of the 19th Century, the creation of Westmount Park, followed by the construction of the municipal library and the first Victoria Hall, led to the development of this area. It is located between Westmount Park and King George (Murray) Park, and is made up of attached and semi-detached houses. All the streets run in a north-south direction, except for Springfield Avenue which remains a quiet enclave despite its proximity to Sherbrooke Street. Like Côte St-Antoine Road, Arlington Lane started out as an Indian trail.
