

Character Area 39 Glen Yards

This most southwesternly section of Westmount is occupied by the C.P. railway station, which now remains vacant. A prominent physical trait of the area is the escarpment and the elevated autoroute which cut across this area. The now defunct C.P. railway yard (Glen Yard) is at the edge of the escarpment at the western extremity and is visible from as far as King George Park. The old C.P. railway yard is zoned residential; future residential developments are planned on this site.
